

According to a DOT official, the access road that exists into the subject property will be the last curb cut along Route 9 just before the connector begins. That is the current plan in place with DOT. This section of the subject parcel is zoned commercial.

S